WORLD is a non-governmental, non-political, and non-profit development organization established by a group of young, energetic people who are highly motivated and committed to contributing their time, skills, and energy to the development and empowerment of socially disadvantaged and vulnerable communities in Afghanistan to address poverty and gender-based discrimination. WORLD currently works across all 15 provinces of Afghanistan, including Ghor, Nangarhar, Kunar, Laghman, Nuristan, Khost, Paktya, Kunduz, Mazar, Kapisa, and Parwan, particularly in research, health emergencies, Gender-Based Violence, and other public health activities. WORLD believes that networking, collective efforts, sharing of knowledge, resources, and information are key to success in addressing the developmental issues and challenges. With this in mind, the organization always seeks to join all relevant forums and networks that align with its mission and objectives.
