Framework Agreement for Supply of Stationery and Recreational Kits for WCUK Future Projects and Emergency Responses, Including Delivery to 15 Provinces

WCUK-HRT-26-001069

Background:

War Child is an independent, non-governmental humanitarian and development organization dedicated to ensuring a safe future for every child affected by conflict and violence. Established in 1993, War Child works with children, families, and communities to protect, educate, and support children in rebuilding their lives and realizing their rights. War Child UK (WCUK) has been operating in Afghanistan since 2002, delivering integrated humanitarian and development program in partnership with communities, government institutions, and local organizations. WCUK currently implements program across multiple provinces, focusing on Child Protection, Education, Mental Health, and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS), Livelihoods and Economic Recovery, and Emergency Response, while promoting safeguarding, gender equality, disability inclusion, and accountability to affected populations.

Purpose of the Call for Tenders:

War Child Afghanistan intends to establish one-year Framework Agreements (FWAs) with qualified suppliers for the supply and delivery of stationery and recreational kits for future projects and emergency responses, including delivery to 15 provinces.
