INTRODUCTION OF ORD

Organization for Relief Development (ORD) is a non-governmental, non-profit, and non-political organization that has been established in 2010, and registered in Kabul, Afghanistan with the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan. ORD plays a critical role in providing management services for peacebuilding, humanitarian assistance, and development operations. These activities help suffering people in troubled parts of Afghanistan. ORD's mission is to expand the capacity of its partners to implement peacebuilding, humanitarian, and development operations that matter for people in need. Working in some of Afghanistan's most challenging environments, ORD's vision is to always satisfy stakeholders with management services that meet better standards of quality, speed, and cost-effectiveness. By assisting its development partners, ORD makes significant, tangible contributions to results on the ground. For further information on ORD, its mandate, and operations please see <http://www.ord.org.af>.

1. INVITATION TO BID

The Organization for Relief Development (ORD) is implementing partner of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) for the Community-Based Livelihood Intervention and assistance to persons with Specific Needs project in the north and northeast provinces of Afghanistan.
